

Job Title	Cellar Assistant / Beertender
Reports To	Brewmaster & Sales Manager
Position Type	Full Time / Non-Exempt
Wage	$15+/hr Depending on Experience Plus Tips
Schedule	Weekends + Flexible Weekday Availability

Cellador Ales is growing and we are looking for a Cellar Assistant/Beertender to join our small team! This position will be split about 50/50 between serving customers in the taproom and beer production. Our perfect candidate is passionate about craft beer, fermentation and food, and is excited about great hospitality and about creating memorable experiences for customers. A flexible schedule is preferred, and weekend availability is a must.

Our brewery specializes in 100% oak-fermented farmhouse-style beers. We do not have our own brew system, so production-side work will include hand-processing fruit, barrel-work, packaging and lots of cleaning and sanitizing.

We are looking for someone with an infectious passion for beer and brewing and for building relationships with our customers and club members. This person is a hard worker, who's excited about a job that lets them wear many different hats and be a part of a very small team of passionate people.
